Change Notice of Certificate of Analysis Form

Dear Customers,

In the past, Kuraray group Environmental Solutions Division has been working to integrate various operations with the globalization. We hereby inform you change of Certificate of Analysis (COA) Form.

Please note that there will be no change in the items related to the analysis values that we provide, and that there will be no change in the language of the submitted documents. In addition, there are cases the current COA forms were added to the specification documents for the customers as an example. In that case, please be deemed to replace them the new Certificate of Analysis form.

We will send the letter separately to explain our request this time.

Best Regards,
